MONTGOMERY-BRADFORD-BAKER FAMILIES OF ASHVILLE, AL A GENEALOGY AND HISTORY

PREFACE

This book is the third in a series to be published of my combined families during the year 2012. The first book: THE BOTHWELL FAMILY OF ASHVILLE, AL AN UNOFFICIAL GENEALOGY – Descendants of Jesse & Narcissus Bothwell is a history of my paternal family. The second was a more in depth look at my maternal family history and update of a work I completed in July of 1998: “Bridging the Gap”, entitled: THE MONTGOMERY FAMILY OF ASHVILLE, AL AN UNOFFICIAL GENEALOGY – DESCENDANTS OF JOE & AUTTIE MONTGOMERY. This third is a complete history of my maternal family: MONTGOMERY-BRADFORD-BAKER FAMILIES OF ASHVILLE, AL - A GENEALOGY AND HISTORY.

These works have come literally on the heels of each other without much time to process information or the process itself. I have to admit that I have learned a lot since first starting this process more than three years ago. One, just how consuming the effort can become; and secondly, how annoying you become to others in your quest for information.

As I finalize this particular book I wrap up the various projects with mixed emotions. As I mentioned I have learned a lot and the creative part of me wants to press on to apply a lot of that learning. I would love to pull in photos, addresses, and other critical and pertinent information, however, the process really is unending. So, for the sake of my sanity and that of my family and friends I submit what I know is just the tip of the iceberg.

One day I hope to return and fill in the many blanks. I will be attending a national genealogy conference in October of this year in Greensboro, NC where I’m sure I’ll learn even more and over the next few years have hopes of digging even deeper and publishing a work that represents a broader view of my family.

At this juncture my next project is one that’s much more personal and individual in nature – my life’s journey through the eyes of the Word of God. Pray with me as I endeavor to take a journey that will bless the lives of others as I pen “my story”.

In the interim, I hope the family enjoys our collective history and find value for your families. Like myself, I think you might find some of the dates and information interesting, especially toward dispelling some of the stories I’ve heard over the years. You might want to test some of those against the timelines, dates and documentation provided.

While it is not totally inclusive, I have included some of the documentation of dates of birth, dates of death, marriage certificates and a few pictures of the first couple of generations that have been made available to me.

FAMILY HISTORY

MONTGOMERY-BRADFORD-BAKER FAMILY HISTORY

Our Montgomery-Bradford-Baker family history can be traced with certainty back to Ashville, St. Clair County, AL as early as the birth of Jane Mize in about 1841 and her husband Daniel Mize born in about 1842. This is documented through the 1870 US Census. Daniel and Jane Mize were both shown as having been born in Alabama. This likely means both Daniel and Jane were born as slaves. Daniel's race was shown as Black and Jane's as Mulatto, which generally meant Jane was of mixed race. D. Mize and his family also appear in the 1866 Slave Schedules.

Included in the 1870 US Census was an older daughter, Rachel, who was fourteen (14) years old at the time and her race was listed as Mulatto as well. Thus Rachel was born in about 1856, also during slavery. There were three additional siblings listed: Josephine, age eight; Willie, age four and John M., age five months. We have not been able to uncover any additional information about the Mize family beyond Rachel at this point. We were able to obtain Rachel's parent's names from her death record obtained from Alabama Deaths and Burials Index, 1881 – 1974. In addition the name Rachel Mize shows up on her third husband's death record and on a couple of her children's death records as well. In discussion with the Alabama State Archives reference archivist, a word of caution that this simply places Rachel in the home, does not definitively establishes both Daniel and Jane as Rachel's parents.

You will note in some previous documented family history that Rachel's maiden name was shown as Truss. Also, at the time of Rachel's first marriage to Pope Montgomery her name was shown as Rachel Truss. It is believed that the Truss family out of Anniston was the slave owners for Rachel. It was reported that earlier visits to the Ashville Archives by Barbara Lawrence Green and Bernice Bradford Fomby uncovered a Truss family will that showed Rachel as a family slave. This is still under research at the time of this writing by the Ashville Archives. My visit uncovered no record of this will.

Information taken from Barbara Lawrence Green and Bernice Bradford Fomby's booklet entitled; "The History of Rachael Truss and the Joining of the Montgomery/Bradford/Baker Families":

Rachael was sold as a slave to a white family on the "rock" in Ashville, Alabama. It is believed that she came from the Truss family of Trussville, AL. Although Rachael had a strong Indian heritage, her race was listed as Mulatto, which means that one parent was Black and one White.

It continues.....she married N. Bradford (could not find his first name). Bradford came to Ashville, AL as part of a road crew for the highway system. It is believed that he was originally from the state of Texas. To this union 2 children were born: Pink and Icey.

I have included this information as I have not been able to document the information surrounding the Truss family or Truss name and nor have I uncovered information around N. Bradford's origin. However, I thought it important to include either verbal or other information that has been either uncovered or reported by all family members.

Rachel married Pope Montgomery November 9, 1871. (We have been able to locate copies of marriage certificates for all three of Rachel's marriages from the Ashville Archives). Note that after obtaining a copy of the marriage certificate for Rachel and Pok that the copies are so light and washed out that it is virtually impossible to decipher her last name. The Truss name does appear on the typed list of Black Marriages and it is assumed that the original list reflected more clearly the name Truss. Another name for Pope is Pok as it appears on their marriage record or Polk as it appears on his death record. Pope Montgomery was born in about 1851. 1880 US Census shows that he was born in Alabama, however his father was born in South Carolina and his race was Black. At this point we have not been able to uncover any additional information about Pope Montgomery's origin or family background.

During the time period 1871 – 1881 Pope and Rachel had five children: Joseph (Joe) Deed, Lola or Lorah, Edna, Janie and James P. (Punk). Pope died December 23, 1884 at the age of 33.

I do want to add a couple of caveats here. First, I have spent a considerable amount of time cross referencing and validating the information included here; either via Census records, death records, marriage records, the Ashville Archives and in person with various family members. In addition, after attending a genealogy workshop in Odenville, put on by their genealogy society, I had the opportunity to submit the copy of Pok and Rachel's marriage record and referenced the book it was recorded from and the micro fiche numbers supplied by Charlene Simpson of the Ashville Archives to the State of Alabama Archives, Nancy Dupree. After extensive effort, Nancy also was unable to decipher the last name shown on the marriage record.

Secondly, the information from the Ancestry.com system is subject to some error as it is electronically reading manually written schedules and/or micro fiches from over one-hundred and sixty years ago in some instances. Finally, the census records also recorded that most of the respondents back then could neither read nor write. So, the census takers were in some instances handicapped by their interpretation of what they were being told especially as regards to spelling of names. You'll note instances later for instance where my grandmother's name in some places was "Auttie" and in others "Auddie". However, our aunts assure me that it was Auttie. Also, my grandfather, great-grandfather and Uncle Joe Jr.'s names appear early on as Joseph and not Joe. Later the name was shortened to Joe. My great-grandfather Joseph Deed Montgomery was known to family as Deed, however, again, early census records record it as Joseph Deed.

Rachel next marries N (also known as Nels) Bradford on December 29, 1885. There is also no information on Nels's or N's family background. The name Nels was obtained from a copy of Pink Bradford's death record. Rachel and Nels had two children: Pink (Id, Idd or Ed), a son and Icey, a daughter.

Rachel next marries Lum Baker on December 18, 1895. Rachel and Lum Baker had two children as well: Lena Bell Baker and Lennie Baker. Rachel died January 30, 1941 in Ashville, AL and Lum died November 30, 1958 in Attalla, AL.

Please note the section providing documentation of census records; birth and death certificates as well as marriage records.

ORIGIN OF THE MONTGOMERY NAME

Unlike with my research of the Bothwell family name, we do not have a definitive link to any other Montgomery family, though US Census records do state that Pope was born in Alabama and his father in South Carolina. There are a number of other white Montgomery families in Ashville, including those with the names of James Pendleton Montgomery, but we have not been able to link the black Montgomery's to any other family in St. Clair County at this point.

So I offer a definition of the origin of the name obtained from the internet:

This is one of the most distinguished Anglo-Scottish surnames. It is of French locational origin from the ancient castle of Saint Foi de Montgomery in the diocese of Lisieux, Normandy, or from St. Germain de Montgomery in Calvados. The name is first recorded in England in the latter half of the 11th Century. Roger de Montgomery, a Norman nobleman who took part in planning the Invasion of England in 1066, was created Earl of Arundel and granted vast estates in Sussex circa 1067. He obtained the earldom of Shewsbury in Shropshire in 1071. The former county of Montgomeryshire in Wales received its name from the Norman territory, the component elements being the Old French "mont", a hill, plus the Germanic personal name "Gumaric", meaning "man-power". Robert de Mundegumri was the first recorded namebearer in Scotland, a charter witness in circa 1165. The Montgomeries were granted the earldom of Eglington in 1507. Sir Bernard Montgomery, the British Field Marshall of the Second World War, was arguably the most successful army commander since the days of the Duke of Wellington in 1815. The first recorded spelling of the family name is shown to be that of Hugo de Montgomeri. This was dated 1086, in the Domesday Book of Staffordshire, during the reign of King William 1st of England, and known as "The Conqueror", 1066 - 1087. Throughout the centuries, surnames in every country have continued to "develop" often leading to astonishing variants of the original spelling.
